Our Rabbi's

Rabbi David Azancot is a distinguished Torah scholar, educator, and community leader with a global perspective who has made a powerful impact on the Jewish community in Houston. Originally from Bogotá, Colombia, Rabbi Azancot has lived in Jerusalem, Paris, and New York, gaining invaluable experience and cultivating a deep commitment to Jewish unity and spiritual growth. Following in the footsteps of his father, Rabbi Yehuda Ari Azancot, head rabbi of Congregation Beth Torah in Brooklyn, NY, Rabbi Azancot spent years studying at Yeshivat Chofetz Chaim Rabbinical Seminary of America before furthering his education at the prestigious Jerusalem Kollel under the guidance of Rabbi Yitzchak Berkovits. There, he received his Semicha and completed the renowned Ner Le'Elef rabbinic leadership program. As Assistant Rabbi and Outreach Director at Congregation Beth Rambam, Rabbi Azancot has been a driving force in shaping the growth and vibrancy of Houston's Jewish community. His engaging leadership attracts individuals from all walks of life through a wide range of programs, classes, and events—from introductory Jewish education to advanced Halachic discussions. Rabbi Azancot teaches in Hebrew, Spanish, and English, and his repertoire also covers conversational French, broadening his reach and impact across diverse communities.

Our Rabbi's

Rabbi Samy Soussan is a dedicated leader in the Houston Sephardic community, known for his heartfelt tefillot, uplifting divrei Torah, and deep commitment to preserving Sephardic tradition. As the Hazzan and former Associate Rabbi of the Sephardic community in Houston, TX, he has inspired countless individuals through his melodious tefillot and engaging shiurim, strengthening Torah and communal life. Together with his wife, Mikhal, a devoted mechanechet, they continuously work to elevate the growth of their community. In addition to his rabbinic leadership, Rabbi Soussan served as Director of Houston NCSY, connecting hundreds of Jewish teens to Torah, mitzvot, and their rich mesorah through impactful programming and personal mentorship. This Pesach, Rabbi Soussan looks forward to enhancing the Yom Tov experience with soulful tefillot, Divrei Torah filled with wisdom and depth, and a warm Sephardic ruach, ensuring a Chag of kedusha, simcha, and inspiration.

Rabbi Yaacov Laredo is a community leader in Florida and has inspired countless Jews with his engaging, warm and charismatic personality and teaching skills. Born in Montreal, Canada, Rabbi Laredo attended Yeshivat Mikdash Melech in Jerusalem, Israel and is a rabbinical graduate of the Jerusalem Kollel, led by Rabbi Yitzchak Berkowitz. He is also a certified and experienced Mohel and Shochet and is diligently conducting and assisting in Jewish lifecycle events such as baby naming's, circumcisions, Bar & Bat Mitzvahs, weddings and end of life experiences. Rabbi Laredo founded the Hollywood Torah Center, which provides engaging learning opportunities for adults of all ages and backgrounds to expand themselves through the study of Torah. The Hollywood Torah Center has full services and hosts local consistent classes, special guest speakers and special events. Rabbi Laredo lectures internationally at schools, seminars, synagogues and various religious and social events, always leaving the attendees inspired and empowered. His most interesting topics include believing in yourself, marital harmony, parenting skills, living an ethical and moral life, Talmudic concepts and Halacha applications. Six years ago, he became the director of the Sephardic Initiative at the main Yeshiva in South Florida, Yeshivas Toras Chaim Toras Emes. There, Rabbi Laredo oversees the multiple minyanim the Yeshiva offers its students from middle school through high school, organizes exceptional guest speakers and special father and son events. Rabbi Laredo personally leads and prays with the high school minyan, then the middle school minyan, both followed by a daily halacha, and then teaches a twelfth grade halacha class. Check out the 100's of Torah classes on Rabbi Yaacov Laredo has on his YouTube channel.
